01 Positioning

reMarketplace is the white-label product marketplace of the ReSystem ecosystem. Businesses pick a ready-built fintech, Web3, identity or AI product, put their own brand on it and launch in weeks — without hiring a development team.

Headline

Launch fintech · identity · Web3 · wallet · investment · AI products in days, not months.

Elevator pitch (30 seconds)

Building a fintech or Web3 product from scratch costs $200K+ and 6–12 months. reMarketplace gives you pre-built, compliant, battle-tested products — wallets, stablecoins, identity, real-world-asset platforms, AI tools — that you rebrand and deploy under your own name in about three weeks. You own the brand and the customers; we carry the infrastructure.

One-liners

- “You own the brand. We carry the infrastructure.”
- “Skip the 12-month build.”
- “List once, sell repeatedly.” (for product builders)
- “From idea to a live branded marketplace in weeks.”

Tone of voice

Confident, plain-English, benefit-first. Short sentences. Numbers over adjectives. Never name clients or their domains — use “your brand” / “your domain”.

02 Key messages & proof points

Message	Proof point to use
Speed	Live in about 3 weeks vs 6–12 months building from scratch
Cost	From $200K+ build cost to a licence / white-label fee
Reliability	99.9% uptime · 38 ms latency · 1,200 TPS on the ReSystem backend
Breadth	17 products across finance, identity, real-world assets, blockchain, infrastructure, AI, events and real estate
Ownership	Your brand, your domain, your customers
Compliance built-in	Payments, KYC/identity (reID) and blockchain (INFRA) already integrated
Try before you buy	Every live product has a sandbox demo with test credentials and a downloadable brochure
Human help	Book a call with a real specialist in your language, at a time that suits you
